The Lion and the Mouse

an Aesop's Fable

Jan Ormerod

Spanish translation by Marta Belen Saez-Cabero

The Fables from Around the World series is a fantastic way to explore the rich diversity of different cultures. Each Aesop fable is partnered with a story from another part of the world that has similar animal characters.

In Aesop's The Lion and the Mouse Lion spares the life of little Mouse, never thinking that one day the Mouse might save his life.
In the Malaysian fable, The Hare's Revenge Hare is fed up with the bullying Lion and finds a way to outwit him.

Jan Omerod's warm retelling and dramatic illustrations make Lion Fables a wonderful addition to any classroom. Jan is a prolific illustrator of children's books, has won many honours and awards and is published in 21 countries.

Lion Fables comes with a vast range of language choices. By adding the TalkingPEN enabled voice-overs, the stories are beautifully narrated aloud page by page in various languages.

Dual language books are available in the following language editions:

English with Albanian, Arabic, Bengali, Chinese, Farsi, French, Lithuanian, Panjabi, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Simplified Chinese with Pinyin, Somali, Spanish, Tamil, Turkish, Urdu or Vietnamese.

(There are TalkingPEN audio narrations in these languages. Please email info@mantralingua.com for availability).

Lion Fables is also available in the English only edition.

TalkingPEN enabled languages are as follows:

English with Bulgarian, German, Gujarati, Hindi, Irish, Italian, Japanese, Kurdish, Malayalam, Nepali, Romanian, Tagalog or Yoruba. These TalkingPEN audio narrations will work on the English only edition of Lion Fables.
