

FORENSIC FABLES

by

O

FORENSIC FABLES

by

O

COMPLETE EDITION

LONDON
BUTTERWORTHS

1961

Forensic Fables	1926
Further Forensic Fables.	1928
Final Forensic Fables	1929
Final Forensic Fables (Second Series)	1932
Fifty Forensic Fables (a Selection)	1949
Forensic Fables (Complete Edition)	1961

Made and printed in Great Britain by William Clowes and Sons, Limited, London and Beccles

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
FOREWORD	v
TABLE OF STATUTES	xiii
TABLE OF CASES CITED	xv

FORENSIC FABLES

1. The Common Law Leader and The Promising Equity Junior	1
2. The Inexperienced Advocate and The Holder in Due Course	3
3. The Youthful Barrister and The Exceedingly Painful Case	7
4. The Circuiter and The Nice Old Buffer	9
5. The Tactful Magistrate and The Much-Respected Colleague	13
6. The Double-First and The Old Hand	15
7. The Two Aged Conveyancers and The Good Story	19
8. The Zealous Clerk who Overdid it	21
9. The Judge who Closed his Eyes	23
10. The Elderly Junior and The Lady Pupil	27
11. The Enthusiastic Beginner who Thought Better of it	31
12. The Witty Judge and The Bronchial Usher	35
13. Irene, her Young Man and The Necklace	39
14. The Defeated Litigant and The Rash Attendant	43
15. The Society Suit and The Unexpected Settlement	45
16. The Traveller who Suffered From Shock and The Railway Company's Physician	49

	PAGE
17. Adolphus Brown, Mr. Justice Grump and The Interesting Case	51
18. Mr. Blowhard, K.C. and Mr. Footle, K.C.	55
19. The Blushing Beginner and The Bearded Juryman	57
20. The Utter Barrister and The Important Treatise	61
21. The Common Law Junior and The Originating Summons	65
22. The Sarcastic Counsel and Mr. MacIntosh, the Moneylender	69
23. The Ambitious Youth who Wanted Eligible Chambers	73
24. The White-Haired Trustee and The Highly-Placed Official	75
25. The Real Property Lawyer and The Surly Game- keeper	79
26. The Industrious Youth and The Stout Stranger	83
27. Mr. Whitewig and The Rash Question	87
28. The K.C., M.P. and The Bill for the Suppression of Night Clubs	91
29. Mr. Justice Cattermall and Mr. Justice Dearlove	95
30. The Sound Lawyer who Made a Good Resolution	97
31. The Kindly Judge and The Lady Barrister	101
32. The Experienced Advocate and The Half-Year's Rent	105
33. The Old Stager and The Exchequer Suit on the In- formation of the Attorney-General issuing out of the Petty Bag	109
34. The Prudent Counsel, The New Client and The Strident Person	113
35. The Tearful Performer and The Plaintiff with a Past	115
36. Mr. Slasher, Mr. Justice Foozle and The Halved Seventeenth	119

	PAGE
37. The Mature Junior and The Diligent Pupil	123
38. The Junior who Lunched at the Club, The Bald Old Gentleman and The Heavy Brief	127
39. Beefy Thomas and Anæmic Henry	131
40. Young Mr. Tittlebat, The Leading Solicitor and The Unexpected Victory	135
41. The Australian Plutocrat, The Millionaire's Nephew and The Old Bailey Practitioner	139
42. The Judge of Assize and The Old School Friend	143
43. The Emeritus Professor of International Law and The Police Court Brief	147
44. Mr. Fledgling and The Application for Particulars of the Statement of Claim	151
45. The Proud Parent who Did his Best for Alfred	155
46. The Idle Apprentice and The Industrious Ditto	157
47. The Young Solicitor and The Sagacious Old Buffer	159
48. The Judge whose Appearance Terrified the Public	163
49. Mr. Buffle, The Young Person and The Seedy Individual	167
50. The Two Templars and The Long Vacation	171
51. The Cautious Solicitor and The Chinese Witness	173
52. The Habitual Criminal and The First Offender	177
53. The Enthusiastic Tourists and The Capable Guide	181
54. The Careful Junior and The Leading Question	183
55. The Athletic Templars who Climbed the Dent du Chien	185
56. The Prudent Judge and the Stout Usher	189
57. The Three Elderly Jurists who Met after Many Years	193
58. The Nervous Youth who Did his Best in the Circumstances	197
59. The Aged Judge who Remembered the Past and Changed his Mind	201

	PAGE
60. The Litigants in Person who Compared Notes	205
61. Mr. Titmouse, Mrs. Titmouse and the Claim for Goods Sold and Delivered	209
62. The Deaf Reporter, the Diligent Young Counsel, and the Glorious Win	213
63. The Distinguished Architect and the Palace of Justice	217
64. The Languid Leader and the Ducal Action	221
65. The Wise Old Bird who Retired	225
66. The Great Lawyer who Told his Audience how to Do it	227
67. The Experienced Judge, the Running Down Case and the Law Relating to Contributory Negligence	231
68. The Man of Affairs, the Intelligent Solicitor and the Promising Son	235
69. Mable Gudgeon, the Dressmaker's Bill, Uncle Peter and the Articled Clerk	237
70. Mr. Sharp, Mr. Bright and the Award Stated in the Form of a Special Case	241
71. The Disgruntled Practitioner who Thought Poorly of Everybody	245
72. The Barony of De Montazure and Front-de-Bœuf, the Committee for Privileges and the Sweet Young Lady	247
73. Mr. Justice Heavyside and the Faithful Clerk	251
74. The Established Junior who had Nothing to Com- plain of	255
75. The Domestic Tyrant, the Crushed Worm and the Bibulous Butler	259
76. The Youth who Resolved Always to Make a Careful Note of the Facts	263

77. The Beginner who Thought He Would Do It Himself	267
78. The Callow Youth, the Brief in the Divorce Court and the Weeping Lady	271
79. The Careful Lawyer who could not Make up his Mind	275
80. The Silk who Knew How to Make a Good Show	279
81. Miss Snaffleton (Infant) and The Old-Fashioned Judge	283
82. Mrs. Sarah Stout, The Last Will of Mr. Buffin and The Draft Affidavit	287
83. The Kindly Judge and Little Effie	291
84. Mr. Bobby Chump, The Successful Defence and its Singular Consequences	295
85. The Profound Lawyer who Received a Subpoena Ad Testificandum	297
86. The High Sheriff's Chaplain and The Assize Sermon which Gave Universal Satisfaction	301
87. The Brilliant Person, The Vulgar Individual with a Cockney Accent and The Two Malefactors	305
88. Lord Pushleigh of Runnymede and his Coat-of-Arms	309
89. The Judicial Personage who Disapproved of Cinemas and Sensational Literature	313
90. The Fierce Advocate who Really Had a Soft Heart	317
91. The Brilliant Orator who Won Fame as a Defender	321
92. Diehard and Stickit, JJ.	325
93. Mr. Bluebag, Mr. Bert Baumstein and "The Old Judge"	327
94. Mr. Pottle's Nasty Accident, The Sagacious Cook and The Action at Law	331
95. The Chancery Judge who Observed that The Intellect of His Common-Law Brother was Failing	335

	PAGE
96. The Husbands who Met in The Elysian Fields	337
97. The Erudite Judge and The Question of Doubtful Admissibility	341
98. Boodle, Cash & Co. and The Big Job	345
99. The Learned Youth, Uncle Robert and The Consul- tation	347
100. Mr. Tompkins, Corinne Bozieu and The Close-up	349
101. The Voluble Plaintiff and The Laconic Interpreter	353
102. The King of the Upper and Lower Cannibal Islands and The Regius Professor	355
103. Mr. Pumpkin, K.C., M.P., The Portrait and The Wedding Bells	359
104. Mr. Splasher, K.C. and The Brief which was Suit- ably Marked	361
105. Beefy and Brawn	363
106. The Two Clerks who Exchanged Experiences	365
107. Mr. Justice Snappy and Jane	367
108. Young Mr. Simple and The Venerable Solicitor	369
109. Mr. Justice Lien and Mr. Justice Drop	371
110. The Old Buffer who Lived in the Temple	373
APPENDIX: The Distinguished Bencher and the Lost Fable	375
INDEX	379